Dear Friends,

Ohio is home to more than one million veterans - brave men and women who have served in every branch of our nation's armed forces and in every major conflict in the modern era - men and women who served so that our freedoms and our nation remain secure.

On this Veterans Day, it is my honor to wish Ohio veterans - and their family members - a happy and blessed day, and to thank you for your service to our state and to our nation.

To the veterans of the Air and Army National Guard, the United States Army, Air Force, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard, and Merchant Marines - our state is forever indebted to you.

You have protected our homeland and safeguarded the values that lend our nation its enduring strength, and you advanced human freedom around the world. Each one of you has earned this nation's deepest gratitude.

As a member of the Senate Veterans Committee, it has been my privilege to hear from Ohio veterans across the state about what matters most to you. Those discussions - with veterans at roundtables and hearings in Ohio - reinforced my profound respect for our veterans.

It is our duty as members of Congress to do all we can to provide the services you all have earned and deserve. I look forward to working with you - and your families - in the coming year to ensure that Ohio veteran's voices are heard in Washington.

Thank you and God bless.

Sincerely,
